

There are animals in the Shirakami Mountains

<Birds>

- Golden eagles
- Black woodpecker

<Insects>

- Miyama crow
- bean jelly
- Gray bean paste

<Reptiles>

- Tokhydromus tachydromoides
- Shimane Snake

<Fish>

- sweetfish
- sculpin

<Amphibians>

- Black salamander
- Golden eagles
- Tohoku salamander
- Japanese serow

Application

The best result is the Shirakami Mountains keep as is and is guaranteed conserving.

And Shirakami Mountains has to increase of visitor

Reference Materials

Manabi JAPAN

Tohoku karkyo Jtmusho

Biology of the Shirakami Mountains

Members

16 HR group 9

Hirosaki Minami High School

Purpose

To understand more about the Shirakami Mountains.

Motive

We are interested in Shirakami Mountains because Shirakami Mountains is near our houses.

History

- Not influenced by people.
- Has the largest beech tree forest in Japan.

7/10 / 1992

• Appointed as a natural environment conservation area.

12/9 / 1993

• Registered as a World Heritage site. We only need to say this once.

3/31 / 2004

• Appointed as a bird sanctuary for all the birds in the Shirakami Mountains.

Biology

There are 500 kinds of plants and 2000 kinds of animals in the Shirakami Mountains.

People worry that the Golden eagles, Antelope and Black woodpecker might become extinct.

There is no way to be maintained in Shirakami Mountains because protect originally biology.

We can't take a mountain from Akita Prefecture.

And it is necessary to obtain a preliminary entry in the mountains area in Aomori Prefecture.

